June's Theme: Love: The Greatest Gift of All

Key Lesson: I Corinthians 13:1-13

Focus Passages: "Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered. It keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails." I Corinthians 13:4-8a (NIV)

Key Concepts: The many gifts found within the gift of love are explored in these workshops. What love is and is not as described by Paul is taught. In a world of trash talk, pushing in, boastfulness and bullying, the virtues of kindness, patience, truthfulness, hope and love are lifted up as the faithful alternatives. Love as a gift from God is celebrated.

From the Red Backpack:

*Based on The Canticle of the Sun
by St. Francis of Assisi*

To You alone, God most high,
Do all good things belong,
to you alone the earth and sky,
now sing creations song:

"Praise You God!" says Brother Sun,
"For you I'll bring each day, I'll spread my warmth to everyone, with brilliant golden rays."

"Praise You God!" says Sister Moon,
With all the stars of night.
"For you we'll wake the owl and coon, and guide with silver light."

"Praise You God!" says Brother Wind,
The host those who fly.
"For you, the snow and rain I'll send,
for the clear blue sky!"

"Praise You God!" says Sister Water,
"For you I will sustain,
refreshing all your sons and daughters,
by my great pouring rains!"

"Praise You God!" says Brother Fire,
"For you I'll give my spark,
and stay alight for all who tire,
yet wander in the dark."

"Praise You God!" says Mother Earth,
"For you I give my fruit,
for you my soil will give birth, to the flower and the root."

"Praise You God!" says Sister Death,
Who no living one can flee.
"For you I'll steal the earthly breath, and lend eternity."

So praise God with humble hearts
All who live as one,
join the song and sing your part,
with earth, and wind, and sun.
